

I strongly support laws that prohibit the same company from owning both a newspaper and a TV station in the same geographic area. We need MORE journalistic diversity, not less. Especially in times of crisis, like the present, it is important that several sources of information be readily available to the public. Monopolies of information are even more dangerous than monopolies of goods and services.